

5th Sunday of Lent

Year A

1 & 2 April

St Mary's Parish Echuca

Reflections on Readings during Lent

Jesus is getting near to Jerusalem — it's just over the hill. He has left the relative safety of his home in the Galilee to be with family and friends. He is late, they tell him. They ask him, why did you take so long? You could have saved Lazarus from dying!

Jesus, though, has another lesson for his disciples and followers. We are all 'Lazarus' and each of us is the one 'whom Jesus loved'. He comes to us and stands at the doorway of our lives and helps us to see that we need to be freed from the dark places in which we sometimes lose ourselves.

Jesus calls the friends of Lazarus to unbind him and set him free. Jesus calls on us to unbind those around us. We all need to be freed from the ties that bind us. We are at all times invited to give and receive the light and life of Christ's healing help and forgiveness.

This week Project Compassion calls us to help 'unbind' the issues for communities living in informal settlements around Fiji. Semiti, National Director of Caritas Australia's partner People's Community Network, addresses the sense of hopelessness in many of his people. He journeys with them as together they create new possibilities for better lives. Through our prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we can support this network of communities as they work in solidarity and grow in resilience and hope.

Semiti grew up in an informal settlement in Fiji. He is now the Director of the People's Community Network (PCN). PCN is increasing the resilience and dignity of the thousands of landless Fijians living in informal settlements. Communities are advocating together successfully for better services, education and housing.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2017 and help vulnerable communities in Fiji to undertake training that will empower them to work towards lasting change in their neighbourhoods.

You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes, by visiting www.caritas.org.au/projectcompassion or phoning 1800 024 413.

Last year Echuca Moama RAR and St Mary's Parish along with the other churches of Echuca Moama walked for Justice for Refugees, here in Echuca. This was a well supported event showing the public support for justice for refugees. This year many of those who walked in Echuca will instead be adding to strength of numbers at the Melbourne March. The 2017 Walk For Justice For Refugees will be on Sunday April 9 at 2pm at the State Library, Swanston St Melbourne (music from 1.30pm).

An estimated 15,000 people attended the 2016 Palm Sunday Walk, it is anticipated that the 2017 gathering will be bigger still, demonstrating the growing concern across the community about the harsh and punitive treatment of refugees and asylum seekers.

Members of RAREchucaMoama and St Mary's Parish will travel by train to Melbourne to be part of this event, if you would like to join that group please contact Christine Sebire 0411 627 645, or if you would like to join us in Melbourne look for our Echuca Moama banner on the steps of the library from 1pm.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

The first Wednesday of each month, 10.30am.

Prayer and meditation before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament are great ways to spend some special time with God. You can ask Him for graces for yourself or for loved ones, reflect on His Word, or just keep Him company! And it's no bother for Jesus. In fact, He very much wants to see you!

We have a group in the parish who gather at this time with the Blessed Sacrament to pray for Vocations to the Church, you may like to join them in this prayer or prayers of your own.

Don't feel like you're wasting time with our Lord if you haven't said numerous prayers. Just give Him your sincere love and devotion. St. Jean-Marie Vianney, once asked one of his parishioners who spent hours in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, "My good father, what do you say to our Lord in those long visits you pay Him every day?" "I say nothing to Him," was the man's moving reply; "I look at Him and He looks at me."

Free copies of the Sandpiper are available at the rear of the Church. Please take a copy.

We pray for the sick: Mary & Des Taylor, Mary Edwards, Patricia Vagg, Cheryl Carey, Rosanna Taylor, Mary Roberts, John Phyland, Brock Phyland, Mary Byrne, Monica Murnane, Dennis Mullane, Genevieve McLindon, Fran Beehag, Enid Stapleton, Bruno Barbera, Peter Boyer, David Carter, George Bomm

Anniversaries: Tom Atkins, Travis Atkins, Ben Symons, Emilio Columbro, James Murnane

Readings

1st Reading: Ezekiel 37:12-14

The Lord says this: I am going to open your graves; I mean to raise you from your graves, my people, and lead you back to the soil of Israel. And you will know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves and raise you from your graves, my people.

And I shall put my spirit in you, and you will live, and I shall resettle you on your own soil; and you will know that I, the Lord, have said and done this - it is the Lord who speaks.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

2nd Reading: St Paul to the Romans 8:8-11

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you.

In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 129

R. With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!

O let your ear be attentive
to the voice of my pleading. R.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive?

But with you is found forgiveness:
for this we revere you. R.

My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.

My soul is longing for the Lord
more than watchman for daybreak.
(Let the watchman count on daybreak and Israel on the Lord.) R.

Because with the Lord there is mercy
and fullness of redemption,
Israel indeed he will redeem
from all its iniquity. R.

Gospel Acclamation

Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!
I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord;
whoever believes in me will not die for ever.
Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!
