With Heartfelt Thanks

On this special Easter weekend when Liz & Gary become members of our faith community I would like to acknowledge and sincerely thank the very special people that have accompanied Gary & Liz on their RCIA journey.

Firstly, to our parish RCIA team - Stella Moore, Bev Kenna, Alison & Terry McKitterick, Kath Quinn, Barb Green, Angela Finn (Liz's sponsor) & Matt McLindon (Gary's sponsor)

These people are truly the face of God in our parish. They have generously shared their giftedness, time, talents and love every week for the past six months such that Liz & Gary have always felt supported, safe & encouraged.

And then to all the parishioners who have warmly welcomed us into their homes each week and shown Gary & Liz how loving and hospitable our St. Mary's parish is and given them some insight into the beautiful, Spirit - filled community that they are joining.

And finally to the immensely learned presenters who put such a lot of time into preparing the topics presented each week to our RCIA meetings. They not only enlightened Liz & Gary but nourished and developed the faith of all those present.

On behalf of the parish and myself thank you from the bottom of my heart for such a joy-filled, Jesus -filled, love & laughter - filled RCIA journey.

Readings

1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 10:34, 37-43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism.

God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil.' Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand.

Now we are those witnesses - we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead - and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Christ has become our paschal sacrifice;
let us feast with joy in the Lord.
Alleluia!

2nd Reading: The letter of St Paul to the Colossians 3:1-4

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 117:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R. This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say:
'His love has no end.' R.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. R.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes. R.

Today's Gospel: John 20:1-9
